Library Macmillan Boycott

LINCC Libraries Directors in LINCC voted to boycott Macmillan Publishers. As a county we will not be purchasing e-books and e-audiobooks from Macmillan starting November 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020. During this time, we will closely monitor the situation. Print books published by Macmillan will continue to be purchased for library collections and are not part of the boycott.

Why boycott Macmillan?

Macmillan restricts libraries to purchasing only one copy of an e-book title for the first eight weeks after publication. After eight weeks libraries can purchase more copies but at double the price for each.

What are the goals of the boycott?

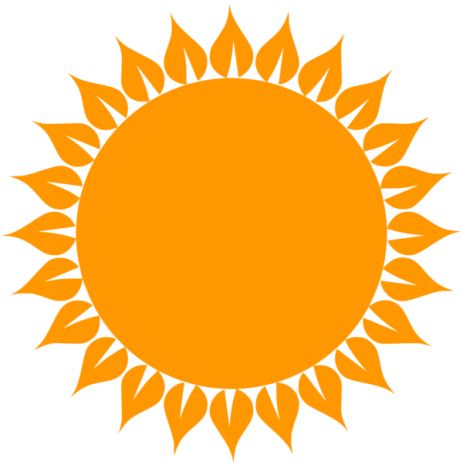

To communicate to the publishers that embargoes are not acceptable and encourage them to change their approach.

Some popular Macmillan authors:

Rachel Maddow, Nora Roberts/J.D. Robb, M.C. Beaton, C.J. Box, Neil Gaiman, Walter Isaacson, Carmen Maria Machado, Jonathan Franzen, Louise Penny, Kristin Hannah, Liane Moriarty and Janet Evanovich.

Power from the Sun

One of the really cool and green features of our new library is the 120 solar panels on our roof. To help the public see the amount of power we generate each day the City has a publicly accessible dashboard. The dashboard shows the layout of the panels, individual power generation of each panel, history, environmental benefits and even the weather.

The dashboard can be found on the "Library Improvements" webpage on our website, at www.milwaukieoregon.gov/library/library-improvements.

New Mobile Friendly Catalog

Our online catalog LINCC.org will now be easier to view with a new mobile-friendly look that's going live on Monday, March 2nd. These changes will only appear on smartphones and mobile devices; the desktop version will remain the same.

More Time and Checkouts

Responding to patron input the Library of Things collection will now have renewals, a longer checkout period and each patron can checkout 2 items at one time!

As of March 3 the following lending rules will be implemented for the Library of Things throughout LINCC.

- 2 items per library card
- 5 renewals if not on hold for another patron
- 2 week loan checkout
